UCI Students Compete at Collegiate Climbing National Championships

Two Members of the UCI Club Sport’s Rock Climbing team qualified to attend the Collegiate Climbing National Championships in the San Diego area on April 18th. UCI placed 21st out of 50 collegiate teams, putting them ahead of UC San Diego and San Diego State University. Alexa Nazarian took 2nd place in the women’s sport climbing event and Baily Schmidt placed 57th in the men’s bouldering event. There were 279 college climbers from all over the U.S. Way to go Climbing Club!